

LEAPS Trader Getting Started Guide

A few people are asking about the best approach with the content, and this will get you going:

Take a deep breath. Don't be overwhelmed.

Start with Step 1 and don't look ahead for now. Keep building and stacking your knowledge.

Don't be frustrated if something clicks, and then un-clicks. That's how learning works - you've had those moments, maybe learning math, where you think "I'VE GOT IT", and then you suddenly don't. When I started as a market maker I was the same. It was "Eureka!" and then "Huh"? But it will sink in and eventually become more and more a part of your mental fabric. Review, review, review and don't get impatient.

By knowing these things, you are going to be in the top 0.1% of people who actually GET options and where the opportunity and pitfalls lie. That puts you in a very powerful position as an options trader and investor.

And if you aren't up for the learning-to-fish part of this all? I will fish. That's the Easy Button here.

Guidance on the video courses:

1)100% you should start with the Boot Camp if you are a beginner or need a refresher. It starts from the very beginning and eventually goes through the 2 most common income strategies that make up the basic wheel strategy (but there's so much MORE with the Enhanced Wheel!).

2)Then move on to the rest of the Crush the Premium Course. You'll notice that Crush the Premium starts with the Boot Camp - skip over that if you've already done it.

2)Then the Nomad workshop (even if you don't do Iron Condors there is great insight on environment and using volatility as a guide – which is a key to my approaches. Edge, edge, edge).

3)Then finally Volatility Ninja which is advanced, but the first 3 lessons are crucial and easy to understand. They are also important to understanding strategies like covered calls (which I ran $700 million of) and Poor Man's Covered Calls - advantages and disadvantages.

LEAPS Trader:

Watch for commentary and trade/investment themes and ideas every few days.

Don't feel FOMO. This run could last a few years, but it will involve ups and downs. It will involve disruption on a scale we have never seen, which is why we need to partake in the fortunes of companies that are getting it right. You are in the right place with this program. The new world is my absolute focus, and the correct LEAPS will be a very flex way to play it.

No guarantees on anything but this is a moment in time we will look back upon years from now. Sounds dramatic but I believe it's true.
